Acanteen is a family-run restaurant and bar, established in 2001 and headed up by myself (Emma) and my Mum (Brenda).

When we first started Acanteen 15 years ago, around the corner on New London Road we struggled for a while to think of a good name for our concept. We knew that we liked the word Canteen as it conjured up a place that appealed to everyone of all ages and tastes, informal and relaxed but we wanted to bring something more personal to the name. Mum's very first sandwich bar in Braintree was called Alphonsus after her dad – Grandad James Alphonsus Mahoney.

He was an amazing, inspiring, hard working and kind man and we like to think that's where Mum and I get our entrepreneurial spirit from. Our family background on my Grandad Jim's side was in fruit and vegetable market stalls and shops around Islington where he traded for many years. Alphonsus got shortened to A and Acanteen was born.

Since our launch every single member of staff has contributed to our growing family tree which is the backbone of the Acanteen ethic, playing a big part in the quality of service which we strive to give each and every one of our valued customers.
